

Sports Journalism Certification

The UNT Mayborn School of Journalism's certificate in Sports Journalism is designed to enhance the writing, reporting, broadcast and multimedia skills for careers in the field of sports journalism.

To qualify, students must have journalism major status.

Students must have a minimum of 3.0 UNT GPA to apply for this certificate program and must maintain a minimum 3.0 UNT GPA to complete the certificate.

The certificate requires 16 hours of coursework in the Mayborn School of Journalism.

Requirements

All journalism concentrations are required to take the following:

JOUR 4350 - Sports Journalism

SOCI 2050 - Sociology of Sports

JOUR 4800 or 4810 - Either Professional Internship or Sports News Practicum

Digital and Print and Photojournalism students will also take:

JOUR 3321 - News reporting, Writing and Editing

JOUR 3300 - Intro to Visual Communication

JOUR 3340 - Digital Media for Journalists

Broadcast Journalism students will also take:

JOUR 3323 - News Writing for Broadcast/Web

JOUR 3300 - Intro to Visual Communication

JOUR 3340 – Digital Media for Journalists

Public Relations students will also take:

JOUR 3321 - News reporting, Writing and Editing

JOUR 3400 - Fundamentals of Public Relations Practices

JOUR 4270 - Strategic Social Media